FamilySearch™ Ancestral File and Pedigree Resource File are computer files that contain names, family relationships, and birth, marriage, and death information for millions of people.

You can both obtain information from these files and contribute information to them. You are responsible for the accuracy of the information you provide. Please make sure that your records:

- Are accurate and, if possible, documented.
- Do not contain information that may confuse, mislead, hurt, or embarrass other people.
- Include information about living people only if you have their permission.

Ancestral File and Pedigree Resource File are maintained by the Family and Church History Department of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

To protect Ancestral File and Pedigree Resource File contributions from misuse, the files are copyrighted by Intellectual Reserve, Inc.

Ancestral File and Pedigree Resource File are currently available to the public in the Family History Library in Salt Lake City, Utah,

Please share – especially your sources – that’s what makes your file valuable to others.

It’s a great way to preserve your records in case they ever get destroyed.

You can also access from anywhere in the world. You can change information and you can also withdraw your submission if you want.

Just Do IT!!!!!!!
